

By order of the orphans' court of Prince George's county, will be SOLD, on the 15th day of February next, at the plantation where the late ROBERT WADE lived, or Tinker's Run, near Piscataway, if not fair the first fair day, so soon as may be convenient. HOUSEHOLD furniture, horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, plantation utensils, and several valuable negroes, consisting of men, women, and children, on credit of twelve months. Bond on interest from the date with approved security, will be required. The sale to begin at 12 o'clock, and continue until every thing is sold.

At the same time and place will be offered for sale, the above mentioned plantation, containing 365 acres more or less; it is very valuable for the superior quality of its soil, well adapted to corn, wheat, tobacco and meadows, and its short distance from the Federal City, Piscataway and Broad creek, navigation about three miles from the two last places. A part of a tract of land containing 90 acres, more or less, in the forest of Broad creek, about three miles from that place, it is chiefly in woods. Two years credit will be given, the interest to be paid annually, bonds with good security will be required, and deeds given when all the money is paid up.

BENONI H. WADE, Surviving executor of ROBERT WADE.

January 17, 1797.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend to apply to the next Anne-Arundel county court for a commission to mark and bound my part of a tract of land, lying in said county, called "OBLIGATION," agreeably to the act for marking and bounding lands.
